

TOOTLING TOOTLES

TOOLS & RULES

Mr. Tootles and the Tootling Tootles package will visit you and your school for a two-week timeframe. You get to keep the package and share in the fun for two weeks and then you will be required to ship out your package to a friend or colleague who also wants to participate.

When Tootling Tootles arrives:

1. Visit tootlingtootles.blogspot.com and check out the Tootling Tootles blog! Please register with us so we can track Mr. Tootles' travels! You can also download copies of the Teacher's Guide and begin some of the fun activities included there.
2. Organize Tootles activities. Download the Tootling Tips. Mr. Tootles wants this to be fun! You can do as much or as little as your time allows.
3. Line up the next Tootles' visit (within 2 weeks) with a friend who is:
 - a. A teacher in grades PK through 3
 - b. A librarian in an elementary school, or
 - c. A principal of an elementary school
4. Please call or e-mail your friend to verify that s/he is willing to participate in Tootling Tootles.
5. Remember, Mr. Tootles would like to visit children in all of the 50 states and across the globe. We will monitor his travels on the website and flag each state or country visit using the online map. Teachers and kids can visit the website and read the blog about Mr. Tootles and his visits to other schools.
6. After the two-week visit, mail the Tootling Tootles package to the next lucky friend who has agreed to host a Tootling Tootles visit!
7. Even after Mr. Tootles tootles on, continue checking the blog to follow his progress across the globe!
